

OFFICIAL APPLICATION TNSA CONSTITUENCY STATUS (2011)

WHAT IS A TNSA CONSTITUENT?

A TNSA constituent is any school chapter in a state-approved program preparing students for licensure as registered nurses that meets the annual constituency requirements detailed below. Only TNSA constituents may be represented in the TNSA House of Delegates, and only TNSA constituents qualify for prizes and awards issued by TSNA. If you have questions please call the TNSA office at: 972/435-2216 or e-mail to: tnsa@flash.net

HOW TO BECOME A TNSA CONSTITUENT:

PLEASE READ CAREFULLY. THIS APPLICATION MUST BE SUBMITTED BY JANUARY 5, 2011.

Schools become TNSA constituents when they submit the Official Application for TNSA Constituency Status (the “application”) and membership data verifies a minimum of 5 TNSA members at the school on a date eight weeks prior to the first meeting of the Annual House of Delegates. Schools with enrollment under 15 must notify the TNSA office directly with a letter of verification by the dean or director of the program. The application contains the areas of conformity listed in the Bylaws. By submitting this, schools agree to abide by these areas of conformity by incorporating them into their own bylaws. Elected school officers are responsible for signing and submitting the application.

ARTICLE IV - CONSTITUENT ASSOCIATIONS

SECTION 2. STATE CONSTITUENT ASSOCIATIONS: TNSA

- A. The division of TNSA shall be local chapters.
- B. Recognition - school chapters where membership is composed of active or associate members and whose bylaws have been approved and remain current, and upon meeting other such policy regulations as the Board of Directors have determined, shall be recognized as a constituent member.

- C. Requirements - for initial recognition, a school chapter shall be composed of at least five (5) members from a school or the total enrollment if less than fifteen (15) persons. Once a school is recognized as a constituent, membership may drop below fifteen (15) as long as the school sends its TNSA CONSTITUENCY FORM to TNSA every year, and sends its NSNA CONSTITUENCY FORM to NSNA every year.
1. If the membership falls below five (5), the school still has a qualified chapter but may not have a voting delegate at convention.
 2. If a chapter's constituency is revoked for any reason, it shall be necessary to file for initial recognition with five (5).
 3. There shall be only one chapter on a school campus.
 4. All TNSA constituent schools are encouraged to have faculty advisor (s) who hold current membership in Texas Nurses Association and/or Texas League For Nursing.
- D. Application for charter of bylaws - for initial recognition as a TNSA constituent, local chapters shall be required to submit their bylaws, which shall include the following areas of conformity for active and associate members, purpose and function, membership, dues, and representation.
- E. If a local chapter fails to submit a TNSA Constituency Form by the deadline date, that chapter will forfeit its delegate seat (s) in that year's TNSA House of Delegates.
- F. A local chapter which fails to comply with the Bylaws and Policies of TNSA shall have its status as a constituent revoked by a 2/3 vote of the Board of Directors provided that written notice of the proposed revocation has been given at least two months prior to the vote and the constituent association is given an opportunity to be heard.
- G. School chapters and state associations are entities separate and apart from TNSA in their administration of activities, with TNSA exercising no supervision or control over these immediate daily and regular activities. TNSA has no liability for any loss, damages, or injuries sustained by third parties as a result of the negligence or acts of school chapters or state associations, or the members thereof in the event any legal proceeding is brought against TNSA as a result of such acts of omissions, or commission by a school chapter, said chapter will indemnify and hold harmless the TNSA from any liability.
